

The 62

MARLINTONIAN

ALMA MATER

Words and music by James S. Brill

Marlinton, our Alma Mater, where our lives began,
filled with dreams for our tomorrow, guided by thy hand when in later years our memories turn to thee anew,
May those thoughts be bright with honor, Marlinton High, for you.

Dedication

For his sterling character, his faithful service, his patience and understanding - we the staff of The Marlintonian affectionately dedicate this 1962 volume to our own

Mr. James Samuel Brill

ADMINISTRATION

Dear Seniors,

You are entering a world to day that is not your oyster. As never before, hard work and study are important. Competition is keener than ever before. Only those who prepare themselves will succeed. Success is not measured in dollars and cents, but in service you can render your fellowman. I wish for you every success that you deserve.

Sincerely yours,

H. A. Yeager

Popular and vulgar, young and old, mixed good and bad.
Efficiency, down popular social centers,
The young and old, men and women, men and women, and children.

The popular play of this age, with
"LITERATURE" as a COMMON SENSE

A. Defers Classic literature to modern, practical, elaborate, scholarly. The aim in literature becomes formal convention.
The way a thing was said was more important than the thing itself. The test indicated to a new literary production
- Does it have the "correct style"?

But Classical literature declined his personal relationships - his club.

Dedication

For his sterling character, his faithful service, his patience and understanding - we the staff of The Marlintonian affectionately dedicate this 1962 volume to our own

Mr. James Samuel Brill

Dear Seniors,

You are entering a world to day that is not your oyster. As never before, hard work and study are important. Competition is keener than ever before. Only those who prepare themselves will succeed. Success is not measured in dollars and cents, but in service you can render your fellowman. I wish for you every success that you deserve.

Sincerely yours,

H. A. Updegr
